Dear Maureen,

Thank you for the July issue of The Numismatist with Eric & your very informative article. I will share it with researchers and of course, have learned much from it already. Best regards to Eric and all.

Cordially,
Roy

Dear Roy,

The research is going well - always interesting.

Thank you so much for checking the Pierres Explication; you have been a great help.

I hope to see you next time I get to Philadelphia.

Best,

--Maureen

Dear Roy,

Stuart and I would like to thank you for giving so generously of your time during our recent visit to the Library. We appreciate your assistance in locating and viewing the Franklin promissory notes, the Woodmason letter, and Franklin's sketches for the Continental Currency. The information and photocopy you provided regarding the notations in The Papers of Benjamin Franklin has given us another avenue to pursue in our research. Thank you also for the lovely copy of The Way to Wealth.

I checked the Mole catalog again and, as it turns out, there was only one repeated item: promissory note no. 15. Please convey our thanks to Scott and your other colleagues for their assistance.

This week, Stuart will send a copy of Eric's book for your personal library. During our travels, we will watch for any Franklin material that would be relevant to your presentations. We'll work on a topic for your newsletter as well.

We enjoyed meeting you and look forward to our next visit to the Library.

Best regards,

Maureen and Stuart
